This amendment is issued to reopen and extend the Request for Quotation (RFQ) closing date and to answer questions regarding the specifications.

The above referenced order is amended as follows:

Reopen and extend the RFQ to 02/27/12 at 4:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time. All previously received quotations will be considered.

The below questions and answers do apply to the RFQ:

Question: The MacPro you are describing P/N ZOLG is a custom built or special order machine. Can you provide us with a copy of the cart that was built? Otherwise we don't know what components that machine contains.

Answer: The Naval Research Laboratory (NRL) is requesting the specifications that was already stated in the original quotation (Brand Name or Equal). There is not a cart built on Apple and based on our market search a cart is not required.

Question: Are you requesting the Thunderbolt or non-Thunderbolt version of the the Apple LED Cinema Display?

Answer: We are requesting Part no. MC007LL/A (Brand Name or Equal). That part number will determine all the specifications we are looking for.

Question: Internet Explorer is NOT compatible with an Apple computer running Apple OSX operating system. Alternatives are Safari, FireFox or Google Chrome. FireFox most closely resembles Internet Explorer. I agree that a better option over the MacBook Air is the MacBook Pro. Using Boot Camp, Parallels and VMFusion are all great for running Windows OS on a Mac. Boot Camp in some cases is not as convenient as using Parallels or VMFusion.

Answer: If you are quoting Brand Name product we are looking for Safari. Again we are requesting Brand Name or Equal products.

No additional questions will be accepted regarding this RFQ. All other terms and conditions will remain the same.
